

CBTE News

Competency-Based Theological Education

June 2018

Early-Bird Registration Extended to July 8th!

June 30th is fiscal year-end for many schools. If you're looking for somewhere to spend remaining 2017-18 funds, register now and reserve your spot at CBTE 2018! Or, if you're waiting for the new fiscal year to sign up, you've got until July 8th to snag the early-bird rate before the price goes up. See rates here...

In This Issue

ATS Peer-Group Study on CBTE released

In conjunction with ATS' Educational Models and Practices in Theological Education, 10 ATS member schools worked together to compile an innovation report on the emergence of CBTE in ATS institutions. That report is now available here.

Register Now!

Early-bird registration for CBTE 2018 is open now. Register before July 8th for the lowest price.

Register

CBTE Perspectives - Ministry Mentor

In Northwest's Immerse program, each student is taken on by a church in a long-term leadership development role, and assigned a 3-person mentor team comprised of academic, ministry and network mentors. We asked ministry mentor, Paul Olson, to reflect on his experience. Read the interview here.

CBTE Speaker Profile: Greg Henson

Greg Henson serves as President at Sioux Falls Seminary where he has worked with his team to develop and launch the Kairos project. Greg's experience with CBTE through Kairos has shaped his understanding of the nature of CBTE as an educational philosophy rather than an educational model. We talked to Greg about this and what he expects to see from CBTE 2018. Read the interview here.

---

CBTE News

Unsubscribe | Manage subscription

